JOHNNY DC SAYS: LET THE MAIL BEGIN!

DRAWING BY MIA EHUDIN, AGE 8

Dear Ed,

I watched all of the "Best Day Edder" on TV. You are my favorite Ed, even better than Edd and Eddy. Especially the dork named Kevin and the brat named Sara. I may be your biggest fan.

Michael Lyons, age 8
Worcester, Massachusetts

Glad you liked the "Best Day Edder," Michael. You may BE Ed's biggest fan. He's going to send you some mayonnaise sandwiches, as soon as he squashes them into the envelope! Look for the announcement of another Cartoon Network marathon elsewhere on this page!
— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY NATHAN KNIGHT, AGE 9

Dear Johnny DC,

I loved "Lucha Va Bloo" from issue #39, so I decided to draw this picture [below]. My cousin Gracie and I both think Bloo is the Ultimate WUSS, even though Cheese beat Bloo.

If Mr. Herriman could wrestle, what would his totally awesome nickname be?

Tate, age 9
Payson, Utah

That old Funny Bunny would be the Wrasslin' Rabbit, right?
— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY TATE

Dear Johnny DC,

I drew a picture of my own poster of my own movie called ROBIN-DOO [above right]. Grim

(is Fred, Ed is Daphne, Lazlo is Velma, Bubbles is Shaggy, and Robin is, of course, Scooby-Doo. The villain is Eddy, when he was obsessed with the Diamond Ritus to transform into Eddy Rex! This is my version of the 2002 movie SCOOBY-DOO.

Jake Place, age 13
Ft. Monroe, Virginia

Outrageous casting, Jake! You say, "Robin is, of course, Scooby-Doo." I'm trying to imagine Robin and Bubbles in a hero sandwich-eating contest.

I can't wait until you send in your version of THE FLINTSTONES IN VIVA ROCK VEGAS!
— Johnny DC

SPECIAL
ANNOUNCEMENT

Every kid loves the Fourth of July, what with all the fireworks, cookouts, and red, white & blue! And now there is an even bigger reason to celebrate our nation's independence! It's The Rada-Pendence Day Radathon on Cartoon

Network! (That means an all-day, 4th of July CHOWDER marathon for those of you who don't speak "Shnitzel.")

And if you don't speak like Schnitzel, then you need to get to know CHOWDER! This is a great chance to check out one of the funniest shows on Cartoon Network! That's because Chowder is a sweet and funny kid trying his best to become a great chef and learn from the master - Mung Daal. But no matter how hard Chowder tries, he always seems to make a mess of everything. Especially the kitchen!

Don't miss the The Rada-Pendence Day Radathon on Cartoon Network, July 4th, 2008, 8 AM till 8 PM.
